

Pastoral Team in Seven Towers – can you join us ?

In the magazine in February I wrote about our newly formed Pastoral Team.

We have met a couple of times and this is what we did:

- We talked about what we felt pastoral work actually was!
- We looked at the way Jesus modelled pastoral work, and thought about what we could learn from that.
- We looked at what was already going on in the villages – which was quite a lot! Very encouraging!
- We looked ahead to see what might happen in the future.

On June 23rd we're going to attend a day's event looking at different aspects of bereavement, at St John's, Churchdown and Innsworth. The day runs from 9.30 – 3.30 and is free. My husband Ian, will be one of the speakers, talking about bereavement with the elderly. If you'd like to come to this event, we'd love to have you with us! Just let me know.

And if this is something you feel you might like to get involved in, again, just let me know. We'd love to have a few more members to join our lovely team.

With love and prayers
